

Realtors Make Donation to Hospice's Mentor Program

The Santa Barbara Association of Realtors raised $6,620 at its annual Casino Night

Ali Barker, left, and Alyson Spann, second from left, of the Santa Barbara Association of Realtors present a check to Hospice of Santa Barbara's Amanda Kastelic, Joy Janssen and Steve Jacobsen. The donation is earmarked for the organization's I Have a Friend program.

By Daniella Elghanayan | Published on 05.28.2009

The Santa Barbara Association of Realtors presented a $6,620 check to Hospice of Santa Barbara on Wednesday.

The money was raised at the association's 22nd annual Casino Night fundraiser, "Surfin' Santa Barbara."

The donation was given to Hospice of Santa Barbara's I Have a Friend program, which matches children who have recently lost a parent or sibling with adult mentors who experienced a similar loss as a child.

— Daniella Elghanayan is a publicist.